

Sources of Data for Research Papers
Econ 481/482

1. Economic Report of the President, published annually.
2. Employment & Training Report of the President, published annually over certain periods in the past.
3. Employment & Earnings, Bureau of Labor Statistics.
4. Statistical Abstract of the U.S., published annually by Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce.
5. Survey of Current Business, published monthly (see July issues) by U.S. Department of Commerce.
6. National Income & Product Accounts of the U.S., U.S. Department of Commerce.
7. Current Population Reports, Series P-60, Consumer Income, published annually by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce.
8. Decennial Census Volumes by State, Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce.
9. The internet. Most or all of the above sources can be found on the internet. Check out websites such as <http://www.bls.gov>, <http://www.bea.doc.gov> , and <http://www.census.gov> .
10. Design and conduct one's own survey.
11. Textbooks.