

Christopher Freiman

Department of Philosophy
University of Arizona
Social Science Bldg., Rm. 213
PO Box 210027
Tucson, AZ 85721

Email: cfreiman@email.arizona.edu
Website: <http://www.u.arizona.edu/~cfreiman>

Areas of Specialization: Social and Political Philosophy, Normative Ethics

Areas of Competence: Environmental Ethics, Metaethics

Education

University of Arizona, Ph.D. Philosophy 2009 (Expected)
M.A. Philosophy 2008

Duke University, B.A. Philosophy 2004
Highest Distinction in Philosophy | Magna Cum Laude | Phi Beta Kappa

Dissertation: Social Justice and Moral Psychology

Committee: David Schmitz (chair), Julia Annas, Thomas Christiano, Gerald Gaus

Publications

- “Is Desert in the Details?” (lead author with Shaun Nichols) forthcoming in Philosophy and Phenomenological Research.
- “Why Be Immoral?” forthcoming in Ethical Theory and Moral Practice.
- “Goodwill Toward Nature,” forthcoming in Environmental Values.

Awards and Honors

Best Overall Performance in the Graduate Program (Fink Award), 2008.

Best Philosophy Paper by a Graduate Student (Riesen Award), 2008.

Presentations

“Justice and Social Science,” Plenary Session, Economic Science Association North American Meeting, (October 20, 2007). Tucson, AZ.

“Deontological Emotions and Consequentialism,” Plenary Session, Interdisciplinary Approaches to Philosophical Issues, (September 20, 2008). University of South Alabama.

“Deontological Emotions and Consequentialism,” (Graduate Student Paper Award) American Philosophical Association, Eastern Division, (December 30, 2008).

“Prioritarian Justice and Positional Goods,” American Philosophical Association, Central Division (February 21, 2009)

“Equal Political Liberties,” Southwest Graduate Student Conference in Philosophy (March 21, 2009). Arizona State University.

Courses taught as independent instructor at the University of Arizona

- Conceptions of Freedom (Philosophy 320A) Fall 2007
- Dimensions of Freedom (Philosophy 320B) Spring 2006
- Metaethics (Philosophy 430A) Fall 2006
- Environmental Ethics (Philosophy 323) Summer 2005 & Fall 2005