

Peter Ecke

Program Highlights

- Tandem Program – Arizona and Leipzig students get together to learn about each other's languages and cultures
- Excursions to cities, such as Dresden, Erfurt, Quedlinburg, or Wernigerode
- Visits to the BMW or Porsche factories, the brewery of Reudnitz, and various museums and tourist attractions
- A concert in the Leipziger Gewandhaus or Leipziger Oper

Apply Online

studyabroad.arizona.edu

Application Deadline

Priority Deadline: February 15th

Financing Study Abroad

The estimated program fee: $2,900*. Scholarships up to $1,000 are available. Information about program costs, financial aid and study abroad scholarships can be found on the Study Abroad website.

Program fees subject to change*

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA.

GLOBAL INITIATIVES

GERMANY

Summer Study in Leipzig

Cover photo by Peter Ecke

Sponsored by

Department of German Studies
Study Abroad & Student Exchange

For More Information

Dr. Peter Ecke
Program Director
Department of German Studies
eckep@email.arizona.edu
520-621-3202

<http://www.u.arizona.edu/~eckep/summer.html>

Kristen Michelson
Study Abroad Coordinator
Study Abroad & Student Exchange
kmichels@email.arizona.edu
520-626-9403

studyabroad.arizona.edu

All contents © 2012 Arizona Board of Regents. All rights reserved.
The UA is an EEO/AA - M/W/D/V Employer.

STUDYABROAD.ARIZONA.EDU

Germany

Location

- Leipzig

Terms Available

- Summer I: Late May to late June

Language of Instruction

- German

Housing

- Single rooms in residence hall equipped with Internet connection

Requirements

- 2.5 GPA
- 2 semesters of college-level German or equivalent

What's Included

- 6 academic credits
- Housing
- Transportation in Leipzig
- Excursions
- Group events including visits to museums and performances
- Insurance

Program Description

Leipzig, with a population of 493,000, is located in the east-central part of Germany in the Free-State of Saxony. The University of Leipzig, one of Germany's preeminent seats of learning, was founded there in 1409. Famous students include Leibniz, Lessing, Klopstock, and Goethe. Leipzig is a major center of higher education, research, culture, nightlife, and shopping as well as a busy venue for trade fairs and conferences.

Lovely Renaissance and Baroque buildings, churches, historical trading centers, malls with restaurants and cafes, numerous museums, and art galleries provide a stylish paradise for students. High-class entertainment is assured – attractions for arts lovers include the Gewandhaus concert hall, the Opera House, the St. Thomas Choir, cabarets, theaters, jazz cellars, the Drallewatsch pub district, and the Moritzbastei, Europe's biggest students' club.

Peter Eicke

Peter Eicke

Courses Available

GER 211: Intermediate Intensive German: Practice of communication skills in German language and culture, (equivalent to GER 201 and GER 202). Prerequisite: 2 semesters of college level German or equivalent.

GER 392: Directed Research in German Studies: Daily class meetings, conversation, reading, writing, and projects on topics in German Studies. Prerequisite: 4 semesters of college level German or equivalent.

GER 492: Directed Research in German Studies: Same as GER 392, but with a more extensive research project on a topic in German Studies. Prerequisite: GER 392 or past Leipzig program participation.

Faculty

Peter Eicke, PhD, is Associate Professor of German Studies and Second Language Acquisition and Teaching. He has directed the program annually since 2003. His experience and connections in Leipzig, and assistance from two departmental teaching assistants, make this a top UA program.

Peter Eicke