

English as a Second Language

Participants will attend an English as a Second Language course, especially designed for them at the University of Arizona. In addition, small groups of CASS teachers will meet once a month with an ESL mentor for English lessons that will include field trips to community locations to encourage English language acquisition and use. ESL mentoring activities and hours will be adjusted as needed. In addition CASS teachers will meet with LRC graduate student volunteers five hours a week for ESL tutoring during the fall and spring semesters.
