

Internship in Local Schools

The CASS teachers will be involved in service learning four mornings a week in three local elementary schools. The participants will work in bilingual education classrooms assisting bilingual teachers with instruction of the core curriculum in Spanish. CASS teachers may be asked to teach small groups of students, to tutor individual children, and to make presentations about their home countries in the classrooms and schools in which they volunteer.